Fargo North High School senior track and field athlete, Haylie Hahnert, will sign her NCAA Athletics Aid Agreement (formerly National Letter of Intent) to participate in college track and field at North Dakota State University on Wednesday, November 16 at 8:00 a.m. in the main gymnasium (Spartandome) at North High.

Hahnert has distinguished herself as one of North Dakota's top track and field athletes, breaking Fargo North school records in both the 200-meter and 400-meter dashes. She was the state runner-up in the 400-meter dash, placed third in the high jump, finished eighth in the 200-meter dash, qualified for Nike Nationals, and earned All-EDC Track and Field honors.
