The Jenkins Jabber of the day is: Running late to class? You're missing out on more than just the opening bell! Getting to class on time means:

- Zero Stress: Skip the awkward door-slammings and silent room stares.
- Full Credit: Catch all the instructions, daily warm-ups, and key announcements right from minute one.
- Respect the Squad: Showing up on time keeps the class moving forward without interruptions.

Beat the bell today—your future self will thank you!

Have a Wonderous Wednesday, Jags!
