Citizen: Non-Agenda Items:
Molly Magnotte, District Parent – She asked if there is the ability to offer small group instruction for Tier I students. Her elementary student asked her because the small group activities seem fun. She also asked about the recent audit presentation. At the end of the presentation, the auditor compared Fraser to Romeo Schools. She asked what Romeo is doing differently than us, because they're a similar size with enrollment and number of schools, but seem to have more parent involvement and higher test scores. Finally, she followed up to an email Dr. Wozniak sent following her public comment at the last meeting regarding a parent who brought a weapon on school property. She said the email did not address the events leading up to that day, or previous interactions with that parent and district staff.

Miscellaneous Business:
Mr. Burrows asked about the SACC program, specifically at Salk Elementary. He said it seems they are having staffing issues for the program.
Mrs. Mulligan said there were two days last week where Salk was understaffed. The SACC supervisor was helping at another school, so the principal did help cover the shift. She is following up with the YMCA of Metro Detroit to ensure this does not continue to happen.
