SHMS Friday Flyer

We Believe & You Belong

Our K-12 staff and students gathered in the NHS Gym to honor our veterans. Seated in the bottom left of this photo, our SHMS students were EXCELLENT in their behavior and respects to the Veterans.

Principal Message

Grizzly Families,

Next week is the final week of Trimester I. With an early release on Friday, November 20th, the next school day is the first day of Trimester II, Monday, November 30th. Beginning that same day, in an effort to maximize learning time and maintain a structured school environment, during the first week of Tri II, we will be deliberately practicing our routines and procedures in the hallways, classrooms, and other areas. As always, reach out to our office with any questions, concerns, or feedback. Thank you!

A Career I Am Exploring:

Multimedia Arts & Animation

High Job Growth- -4.0% from 2023-33
Salary- $99,060 median salary
Current Employment- 73,300 jobs
Minimum Education- Bachelor's degree

Create images & special effects for movies, TV shows, cartoons, computer games & more. Can work on computers or by hand, or both. This is a career for artistic souls.

What do they do?

- Use computer programs and illustrations to create graphics and animation
- Work with a team of animators and artists to create a movie, game, or visual effect
- Research upcoming projects to help create realistic designs or animations
- Develop storyboards that map out key scenes in animations
- Edit animations and effects on the basis of feedback from directors, other animators, game designers, or clients
- Meet with clients, other animators, games designers, directors, and other staff (which may include actors) to review deadlines and development timelines

A Career I Am Exploring:

Astronaut

High Job Growth- -6.0% from 2023-33
Salary- $130,720 median salary
Current Employment- 68,900 jobs
Minimum Education- Bachelor's degree

An astronaut boards a spacecraft to fly on missions for very specific purposes. Astronauts work as part of a crew and therefore have specific responsibilities aboard the spacecraft. They also help each member of their crew to maintain normal functions and to stay safe to work through the missions.

What do they do?

- Spend years practicing in flight simulators, low-gravity pools (like the Neutral Buoyancy Laboratory), and survival courses.
- Work with engineers as "crew representatives" to test and provide feedback on upcoming vehicles.
- Conduct experiments in microgravity to study physics, biology, medicine, and human body changes.
- Perform repairs, act as mechanics or electricians, and manage life support systems.
- Go outside the spacecraft in a spacesuit to fix or install equipment.
- Work out for about two hours every day using specialized resistance machines and treadmills to prevent muscle and bone loss in zero gravity.
- Manage meals, cleaning, hygiene, and communications with ground control.

Professional Athlete

High Job Growth- -11.0% from 2023-33
Salary- $70,280 median salary
Current Employment- 25,100 jobs
Minimum Education- No formal educational credentials

A professional athlete competes in sports for financial compensation, spending most of their time on rigorous training, physical conditioning, tactical study, and recovery rather than just playing games.

What do they do?

- Practice to develop and improve their skills
- Maintain their sports equipment in good condition
- Train, exercise, and follow special diets to stay in the best physical condition
- Take instructions regarding strategy and tactics from coaches and other sports staff during games
- Follow the rules of the sport during competitions and games
- Assess their individual and team performance after each event and identify their strengths and weaknesses
