APPLY TO JOIN THE

STAHR SCHOLARS PROGRAM

SPEND YOUR SUMMER AS A SCHOLAR!

Gain first-hand experiences in health careers at UMKC's Health Sciences Campus

- Conduct a health-related research project with UMKC faculty
- Engage in clinical shadowing with dental, medical, and/or pharmacy professionals
- Engage in volunteering/service projects within the Kansas City community
- Develop and improve skills like writing, networking, and leadership
- Receive mentorship on your academic path

ELIGIBILITY

- Personal interest in pursing a health career in dentistry, medicine, and/or pharmacy
- High School Track: current 10th/11th grader
- Collegiate Track: graduating high school seniors or academically higher, but not yet admitted to a health professional program
- 3.0 minimum cumulative GPA
- From a disadvantaged background*, like low income, first-generation college student, or from an underperforming school (+ more)
- Available to participate June 7 - July 16, Mon. - Fri., 8:30a - 4:30p in-person each day in Kansas City, MO

STAHR looks at several different criteria to determine eligibility. We encourage all interested students to submit an application to have your eligibility reviewed*

BENEFITS

- Free to participate, plus active Scholars receive a stipend
- Earn hours towards research, clinical observations, and community service
- Expand your professional network
- Special considerations for applicants to UMKC's School of Dentistry, School of Medicine, and School of Pharmacy health professions education programs

LEARN MORE HERE:

Scan the QR code or visit
https://info.umkc.edu/stahr/scholars

Deadline: Feb. 1, 2027 at 11:59pm

ABOUT STAHR

Students Training in Academia, Health, and Research (STAHR) is a collaborative effort of UMKC's School of Dentistry, School of Medicine, School of Pharmacy and the Institute of Human Development.

stahr@umkc.edu | (816) 235-6169
https://info.umkc.edu/stahr/