GREAT NECK PUBLIC SCHOOL INVITATION

Hidden in Plain Sight

ASIAN AMERICANS AND THE MAKING OF AMERICA

10 personal stories. More than 150 years.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 2026

7:00 p.m.

Great Neck South High School - East Gym
341 Lakeville Rd, Lakeville, NY 11020

DISCOVER HISTORY THROUGH STUDENT VOICES

Join our student docents for an evening of discovery, dialogue, and connection. Explore the lives and lasting contributions of Asian Americans who helped shape our nation.

From the Transcontinental Railroad to science, technology, and civil rights, discover stories of perseverance and ingenuity. Students will guide visitors through the exhibit, share historical background, and invite conversation and reflection.

PRESENTED IN PARTNERSHIP

Great Neck Public School District & Great Neck Chinese Association

With gratitude to John Wang, founder of the Asian American Business Development Center (AABDC), for generously lending the exhibit and supporting this community experience.
