Director's Note

Welcome to The Addams Family Musical!—a delightfully macabre story that asks us to laugh at the dark, embrace the strange, and celebrate the beautifully peculiar. At its heart, this show reminds us of a simple truth expressed in the phrase normale est illusio: "normal is an illusion." What feels ordinary to one family may seem outlandish to another, and it is in these differences that we discover the humor, the tension, and ultimately, the love that binds us all.

The Addamses live boldly in their own eccentricity, unashamed to dance with ghosts, host feasts in graveyards, or celebrate the moon. Their definition of family—and of "normal"—challenges us to look past appearances and labels, to recognize that every household carries its quirks, secrets, and traditions. In this musical, Wednesday Addams is now 18 years old. She has fallen in love with a "normal" boy named Lucas Beineke. Lucas has asked Wednesday to marry him and because of this, Wednesday and Lucas want their families to meet. When the Addamses collide with the "average" Beinekes, the result is a joyful collision of worlds that proves love, honesty, and acceptance matter far more than fitting into any single mold.

This is my second Notre Dame Academy musical production as director, but I am no stranger to the NDA stage as I acted in several shows with Mrs. Sanders as my director. I am very excited to be directing this amazing show at my Alma Mater.

Finally, I would like to have a FULL DISCLOSURE and thank the audience for coming out to support this production. As you watch tonight, I invite you to let go of any notions of "normal" and simply enjoy the strange, spooky, and spectacular ride. After all, if normale est illusio, maybe we are all Addamses in our own way.

Sincerely,
Kat Sawyer '09 and the NDA Musical Staff

From the NDA Arts Parents Club

This year, we proudly present The Addams Family — a bold, hilarious, and hauntingly fun production that's set to join the ranks of NDA's legendary performances.

Bringing this gothic masterpiece to life is a powerhouse creative team: Mrs. Kat Sawyer '09, Jean Walker '82, Amy Johns, and Jayme Weiden. Together, they've directed, choreographed, and produced a show brimming with wit, charm, and heart. The NDA Arts Parent Club is deeply grateful for their vision and leadership — and incredibly proud of our fearless cast and crew who've poured their "souls" into every moment on stage.

The NDA Arts Parent Club exists for one purpose: to champion the arts at Notre Dame Academy. To every parent, volunteer, and behind-the-scenes hero who helped bring this show to life — thank you. Your energy, your time, and your belief in our students make all of this possible.

A massive thank you also goes out to our patrons and program sponsors. Your support doesn't just help this show shine — it powers the future of the arts at NDA. Because of you, we've been able to invest in top-tier sound and lighting equipment, acoustic shells for our choir and orchestra, transportation for our Speech and Debate team, digital keyboards for Music and kilns and display boards for Visual Arts. Every dollar has a direct impact.

We're just getting started. Be sure to join us again soon as we kick off the Speech and Debate season, host new art exhibits, and fill this space with the sounds of our talented choir and orchestra.

Want to follow along? Visit nda.org and click on the Arts tab, follow us on Facebook at Arts at NDA, or catch exclusive behind-the-scenes content on Instagram @ndatheater.
Thank you for being part of the Notre Dame Academy community. Now sit back, relax, and enjoy the show!
