Portrait of a Wayzata Graduate

Believes in their ability to succeed

- I can confidently take responsibility for my own work and actions.
- I can reflect on my actions and effectively advocate for myself and others.
- I can show initiative, set and achieve goals, and make responsible decisions.
- I can learn from my failures and persevere when I get stuck or face adversity.

Communicate effectively

- I can listen to others respectfully and empathetically, even when I disagree.
- I can start and hold meaningful conversations with adults and peers.
- I can speak and write clearly when communicating with others.
- I can properly identify my audience and purpose when communicating with others.

Values diversity & inclusion

- I can understand and respect people who are different from me.
- I can act with kindness and show empathy towards others.
- I can identify my own biases and learn from others, even those who are different from me.
- I can welcome others into my community and create an inclusive environment.

Thinks critically & creatively

- I can use my curiosity to identify and creatively solve complex problems.
- I can question my own thinking and develop a variety of solutions when problem-solving.
- I can make logical decisions based on evidence.
- I can explain my rationale when making a difficult decision.

WAYZATA HIGH SCHOOL
We're here for you.

Embraces collaboration

- I can lead with humility and encourage others to achieve a common goal.
- I can understand my role within a group and effectively and meaningfully contribute and share my thinking with others.
- I can effectively use technology to collaborate with others.
- I can learn from constructive feedback and provide it to others.

Demonstrates learning agility & resilience

- I can take on new challenges with an eagerness to learn new skills.
- I can acquire new knowledge and apply that knowledge in practical situations.
- I can rebound quickly from adversity.
- I can learn from my experiences, take feedback from others and apply it to new situations.

Focuses on personal growth

- I can identify my personal strengths and interests, potential careers that match my personal strengths and interests, and the necessary skills and pathways required for careers of interest.
- I can pursue the necessary steps to enhance my personal, physical, social, and emotional health and wellbeing.