Gallery Staff

Robin, Female
The director of The Fine Arts Gallery of Portland. Very passionate and imaginative.

Chloe, Female
Robin's personal assistant. Practical. A good friend.

Alex, any gender
The Gallery's janitor. Friendly, helpful, and smart.

Drew, any gender
The Gallery's night watch. Old and superstitious. Scared of ghosts.

Paintings

Lisa, female
The Mona Lisa. Calm and collected.

Blue, male
Blue Boy. Pompous and dramatic.

Napoleon, male
From Napoleon Crossing the Alps. A confident and prideful military leader.

Wilma, female
The woman in American Gothic. A kind, but blunt country girl.

The Scream, female
Loose-jointed, flailing, and absolutely miserable.

Van Gogh, male
Self-portrait with a straw hat. Thoughtful, wise, and artsy.

Pearl, female
From Girl with a Pearl Earring. Curious and cheerful.

Madam Monet, female
From Woman with a Parasol. Quiet and genuine. Speaks in a motherly way.

Nighthawk, male
From Nighthawks. Suave and aloof. 1940's Noir Stereotype.

Hattie, female
From Head of a Woman in a Hat (1962). Cheerful and eager. Speaks Spanish.

The Star, female
From The Star (1878). A sweet, gentle girl with a ballet solo.

Barwoman, female
A chorus part who reacts to the characters in expressive ways.

Art Thieves
Picky, any gender
The leader of the thieves. Bossy.

Oddjob, any gender
Argumentative and tough.

Chip, any gender
The rookie. Smarter than he knows.

Oz, any gender
Innocent and competent.

Others
Jordan, any gender
A mover for Butterfingers Movers & Co. Good friends with Ash.

Ash, any gender
A mover for Butterfingers Movers & Co. Mixes up words.

Jackie, Female
An investigative reporter. Excited and determined.

Francy, Female
Another reporter and Jackie's friend. More cautious.

Officer Gettum, any gender
An overwhelmed police officer.