Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening by Robert Frost

Due: week of December 14th

Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening

By: Robert Frost

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep.
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

Literacy Testing

Middle-of-the-year literacy testing is coming up! Please sign up for a time slot using the link your classroom teacher sent out. The goal is for each student to read 23 correct words in one minute. Please continue working with your child at home to help them read with fluency and accuracy.
