The holidays don't have to be perfect to be meaningful. Simple moments of togetherness can have a lasting impact on a child's well-being. Creating opportunities to connect, listen, and enjoy one another's company helps build a sense of stability, comfort, and joy during the holiday season.

- Read holiday books together at home or from the library
- Take a family walk to look at holiday lights
- Have a movie night with popcorn
- Play board games, card games, or puzzles together
- Share a special family meal, even if it's simple
- Bake cookies or make a favorite family recipe
- Create homemade holiday decorations
- Write holiday cards or thank-you notes
- Listen to holiday music and have a dance party
- Build a blanket fort and read stories inside
- Make paper snowflakes or holiday crafts
- Have a family hot cocoa night
- Share favorite holiday memories and traditions
- Start a gratitude jar and add one thing each day
- Watch the sunrise or sunset together
- Volunteer or complete a simple act of kindness
