Here's a chance to vote for the Upstate Ingles high school boys athlete of the week for Nov. 9-15.

Voting is free and unlimited until the poll closes at noon on Nov. 19. The winner of the previous week's fan vote was Spartanburg football player Tre'Gan Mickler.

This week's finalists:

Zion Dawkins, Gaffney: Dawkins returned two kickoffs for touchdowns, one for 70 yards and another for 79, in a 35-21 win against Fountain Inn.

Kiishawn Farrow, Greenville: Farrow passed for 253 yards (14 of 22) with two touchdowns and one interception in a 28-14 win against Westside. He also ran for two TDs.

Jace Grass, Daniel: Grass completed 14 of 17 passes for 277 yards and four touchdowns in a 56-10 win over Pickens.

Sam Holliday, Fountain Inn: Holliday accounted for 365 yards and two touchdowns in a loss to Gaffney. He passed for 252 yards (25 of 37) and ran 28 times for 113 yards.

Hudson Kennemore, J.L. Mann, Jr.: Kennemore led the J.L. Mann cross country team to the Class SCHSL 5A state championship as he finished second with 15:30.11, the fastest time across all classifications for Upstate runners.

Nick Means, Dorman: Means ran for 194 yards and three touchdowns in a 52-13 victory over Spartanburg.

Sam Patterson, St. Joseph's: Patterson had 135 yards and two touchdowns on only eight carries in a 42-20 win at Keenan. He threw one pass, and it was a 37-yard TD.
