Hoke County High School
JROTC BUCK BATTALION

PRESS RELEASE

Buck Battalion Wins Its First Drill Meet of the Season

Buck Battalion cadets pose with their trophies after the drill competition.

RAEFORD, N.C. — Hoke County High School's JROTC Buck Battalion earned first place overall in its season opener, hosted by Westover High School's Wolverine Battalion. The cadets demonstrated precision and teamwork, winning two team events and the individual unarmed drill knockout.

Competition Results

1ST PLACE — Regulation Unarmed Platoon Drill
Cadet First Sergeant Christine Harbison

3RD PLACE — Regulation Unarmed Squad Drill
Cadet Second Lieutenant Karen Capolin Vazquez

1ST PLACE — Color Guard
Cadet Command Sergeant Major Trey Redmond

WINNER — Unarmed Drill Knockout
Cadet Private Genesis Dominguez

The Buck Battalion congratulates its cadets on their performance and thanks the Wolverine Battalion for hosting the competition.

Yusef A. Roberson
First Sergeant (Retired)

Motivated to Lead!