Centennial
High School

Principal: Dr. Stephanie Lock

A small, student-centered, closed-campus alternative high school offering flexible scheduling, personalized learning, and strong support for social, emotional, and behavioral growth.

Points of Pride

- Hexter model: students attend in six-week blocks, with new students enrolling every six-weeks, helping students attain rapid credit recovery
- Four-day week: Students attend slightly longer days Tuesday-Friday, with occasional Monday attendance days throughout the year
- Small classes capped at 18 students
- Closed campus to help support students' attendance
- Opportunities for off-campus experiences during E-week
- Access to PSD Career Tech Center Pathways, concurrent enrollment, classes, and Front Range Community College
- Health clinic located on campus
- Discovery Program model to help students re-engage and learn skills necessary to succeed on paths to graduation
- On-campus Career and Technical Education (CTE) Pathways: Architecture & Construction, Career Tech Center Pathways
