Below is a snapshot of some of the events the Michael C. Riley students participated in this year:

The Beaufort County School District River of Words publication proudly recognized a large number of M.C. Riley students. Eight students were published for their art work and 15 students were published in the poetry section.

The Student Lighthouse Team has been working hard this year! They presented their ideas to district leaders and were successful in being awarded funding to repair the school sound system and in constructing a shade structure and outdoor classroom on the main building playground that will open in the next school year.

A group of 4th grade students applied and were accepted to join the South Carolina governor to attend Liberty Day at the State House. The was the first Liberty Day at the South Carolina State House and brought together 250 fourth-grade students to Columbia to mark the 250th anniversary of American independence.
