P-TECH Advisory and Steering Committee Meeting

Wednesday, November 18, 2026 | 1:30–3:00 p.m.

Purpose: Align academic and industry partners around student success, workplace learning, and the next phase of P-TECH programming.

Time	Agenda Item	Discussion and Lead
1:30–1:40	Welcome and Introductions	Mr. Pineda, Assistant Principal over the Woodrow Wilson P-TECH program Dr. Battles, Workplace Learning Coordinator Woodrow Wilson P-TECH and Dallas ISD representatives Industry and academic partners
1:40–1:50	Industry Partner Highlights	NFTE | Partnership priorities, current engagement, and opportunities to support students
1:50–2:00	Academic Partner	Dallas College El Centro | Opportunities for student success, academic support, and college engagement
2:00	Advisory Meeting Concludes	Senior leadership participants may depart. All other participants are encouraged to remain for the Steering Committee working session.
2:00–2:20	Planning for Success	Review the Workplace Learning Scope and Sequence and identify near-term priorities
2:20–2:40	Reflections and Comments	What is needed to create successful, relevant, and sustainable student learning engagements?
2:40–2:55	Programming Updates	Monthly P-TECH newsletter Next Steering Committee meeting date or dates Schedule the next Advisory meeting Tentative: 3rd Wednesday, January
2:55–3:00	Commitments and closing	Confirm action items, owners, next steps, and follow-up communication

Desired outcomes: Shared priorities, an actionable workplace learning plan, confirmed communication updates, and dates for the next Steering Committee and Advisory meetings.