MAKE A DISCOVERY

BROOKE

Art history major Brooke embarked on an archeological research project in a small Italian village. She studied centuries or changing conservation and restoration techniques for bronze objects – artifacts which have been continually unearthed in Italy since the late Middle Ages.

NICK

Finance major Nick created an algorithm that takes human emotion out of Investing. He examined herding behavior and loss aversion theory to help people avoid irrational decisions.

HANNAH

Biology major Hannah is pursuing cancer-related research. In the lab, she investigates the structural and biochemical properties of a novel allosteric binding site of SRC kinase.

SUNY students and faculty are collaborating and making some of the most impactful discoveries of our time. From new treatments to diseases to technological advances that ensure a sustainable future for our environment, SUNY is at the forefront of innovation and research.

SUNY THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

SUNY has a strong history of service—beginning with its motto: To Learn, To Search, To Serve. Service-Learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection.

BE A ROLE MODEL

QUENTIN

Sports studies major Quentin has worked as a Teacher's Aide, Monitor, Substitute, Coach and Academic Advisor. The need to create a more gender-balanced environment in the field of early education is especially important. Quentin is the kind of role model who can make a lasting impact on the children in his community.

NICOLE

Psychology and sociology major Nicole became interested in international development, learned how to write a grant and conduct research, and participated in the SUNY COIL Global Commons summer program. This allowed her to collaborate with a Non-Government Organization in Nigeria. Now, she's putting these skills and experiences to use as a Peace Corps volunteer.

BUILD CONNECTIONS

SUNY has a strong history of service – beginning with its motto: To Learn, To Search, To Serve. Service-Learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection.

HOW DO I APPLY?

You can use the SUNY Application to apply to undergraduate programs at SUNY. Visit suny.edu/apply to create an account and get started. You may also apply using the Common App.

WHEN IS THE DEADLINE TO APPLY?

SUNY does not have a single application deadline. The earlier you apply, the better. We recommend checking the application deadlines at your chosen campuses to ensure a seat in your program of choice and for your best chance at the housing and scholarships you want.

WHEN WILL I BE NOTIFIED OF ADMISSIONS DECISIONS?

Decisions will be made for Early Decision applicants in December and Early Action applicants in January. Many campuses respond to regular decision first-year applicants on a rolling basis. Please check with the campuses you've applied to for specific information about the application process.
