NAVIANCE & COMMON APP SCHOOL LINKS SNEAK PEAK

What is Naviance and School Links?

- Web-based college and career research and planning tool for students, parents, and counselors. School districts all over the country are subscribing to Naviance to assist students and families with the critical and sometimes overwhelming tasks of exploring careers, researching colleges, and completing college applications.
- Students are exposed to Naviance/School Links each year to work on different components of the post high school planning process. Every student also has an individualized log-in.

About Me:

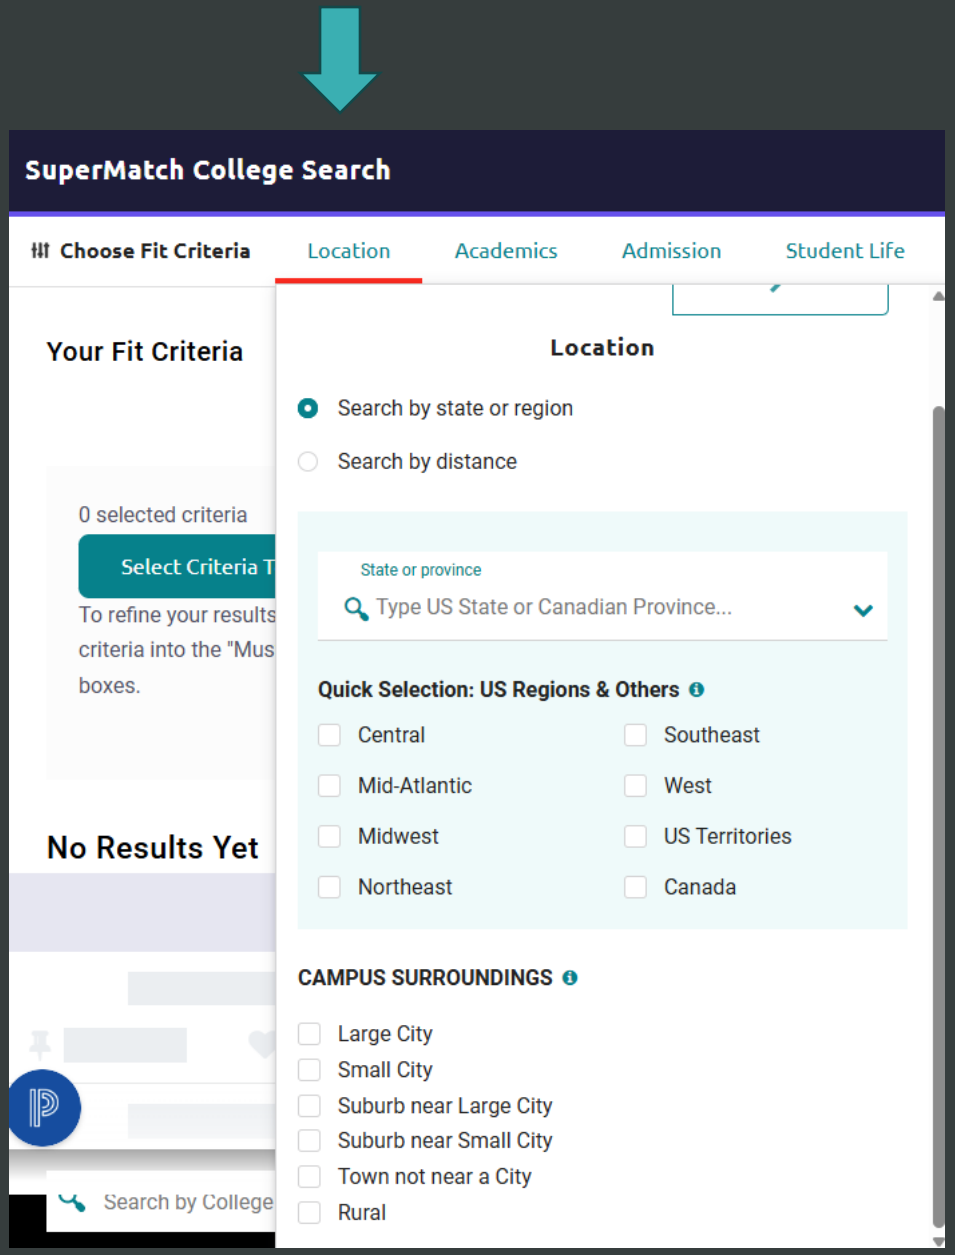

Your resume needs to be completed for college application submissions

Colleges

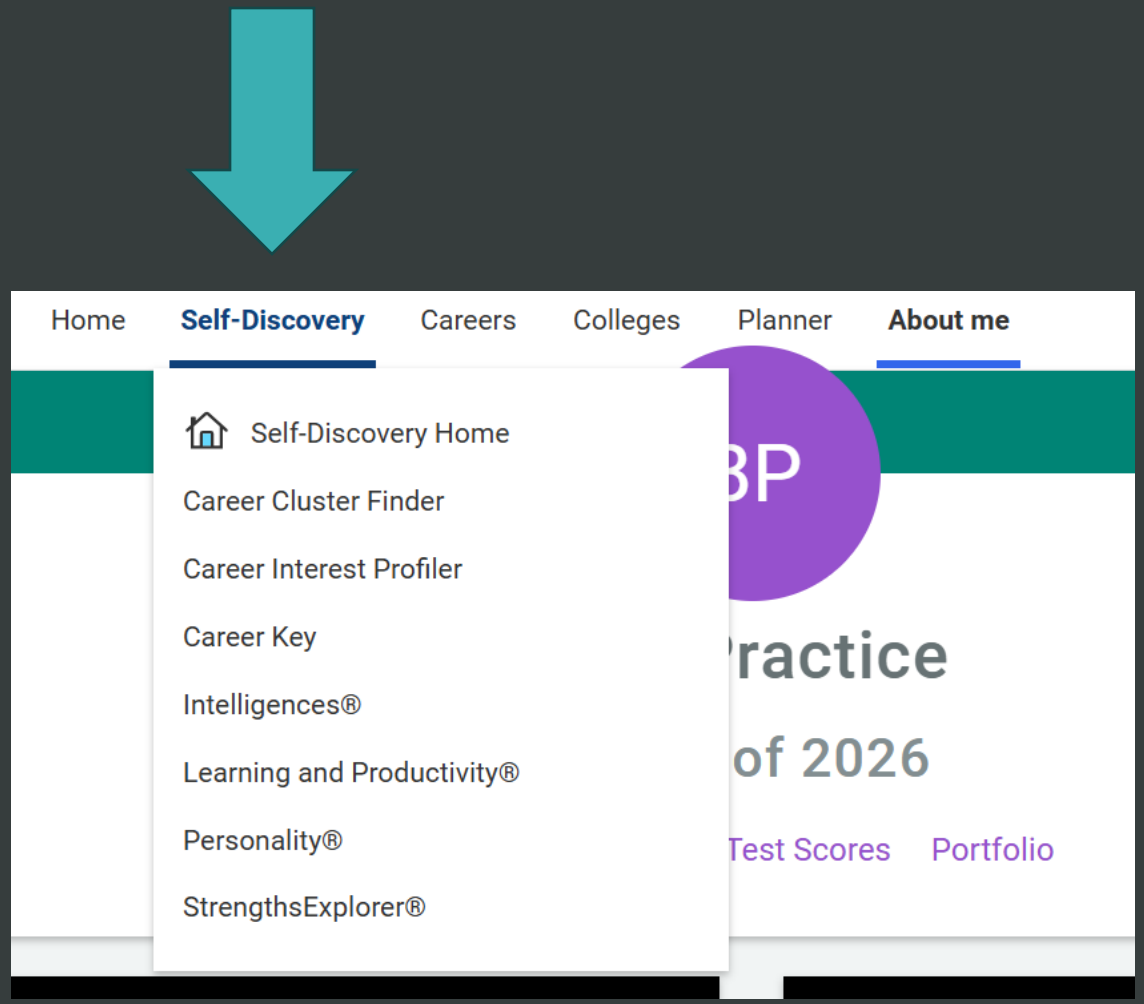

Students must complete their letters of recommendation referrals to the teachers/staff they would like to write them. Outside of school references can be used. Students should contact their school counselor or Ms. Cook for more information.

Super Match:

Find a College by searching your ideal:

Self Discovery

College Major Interest Survey:

Find out what majors best align with your personal and career interests.

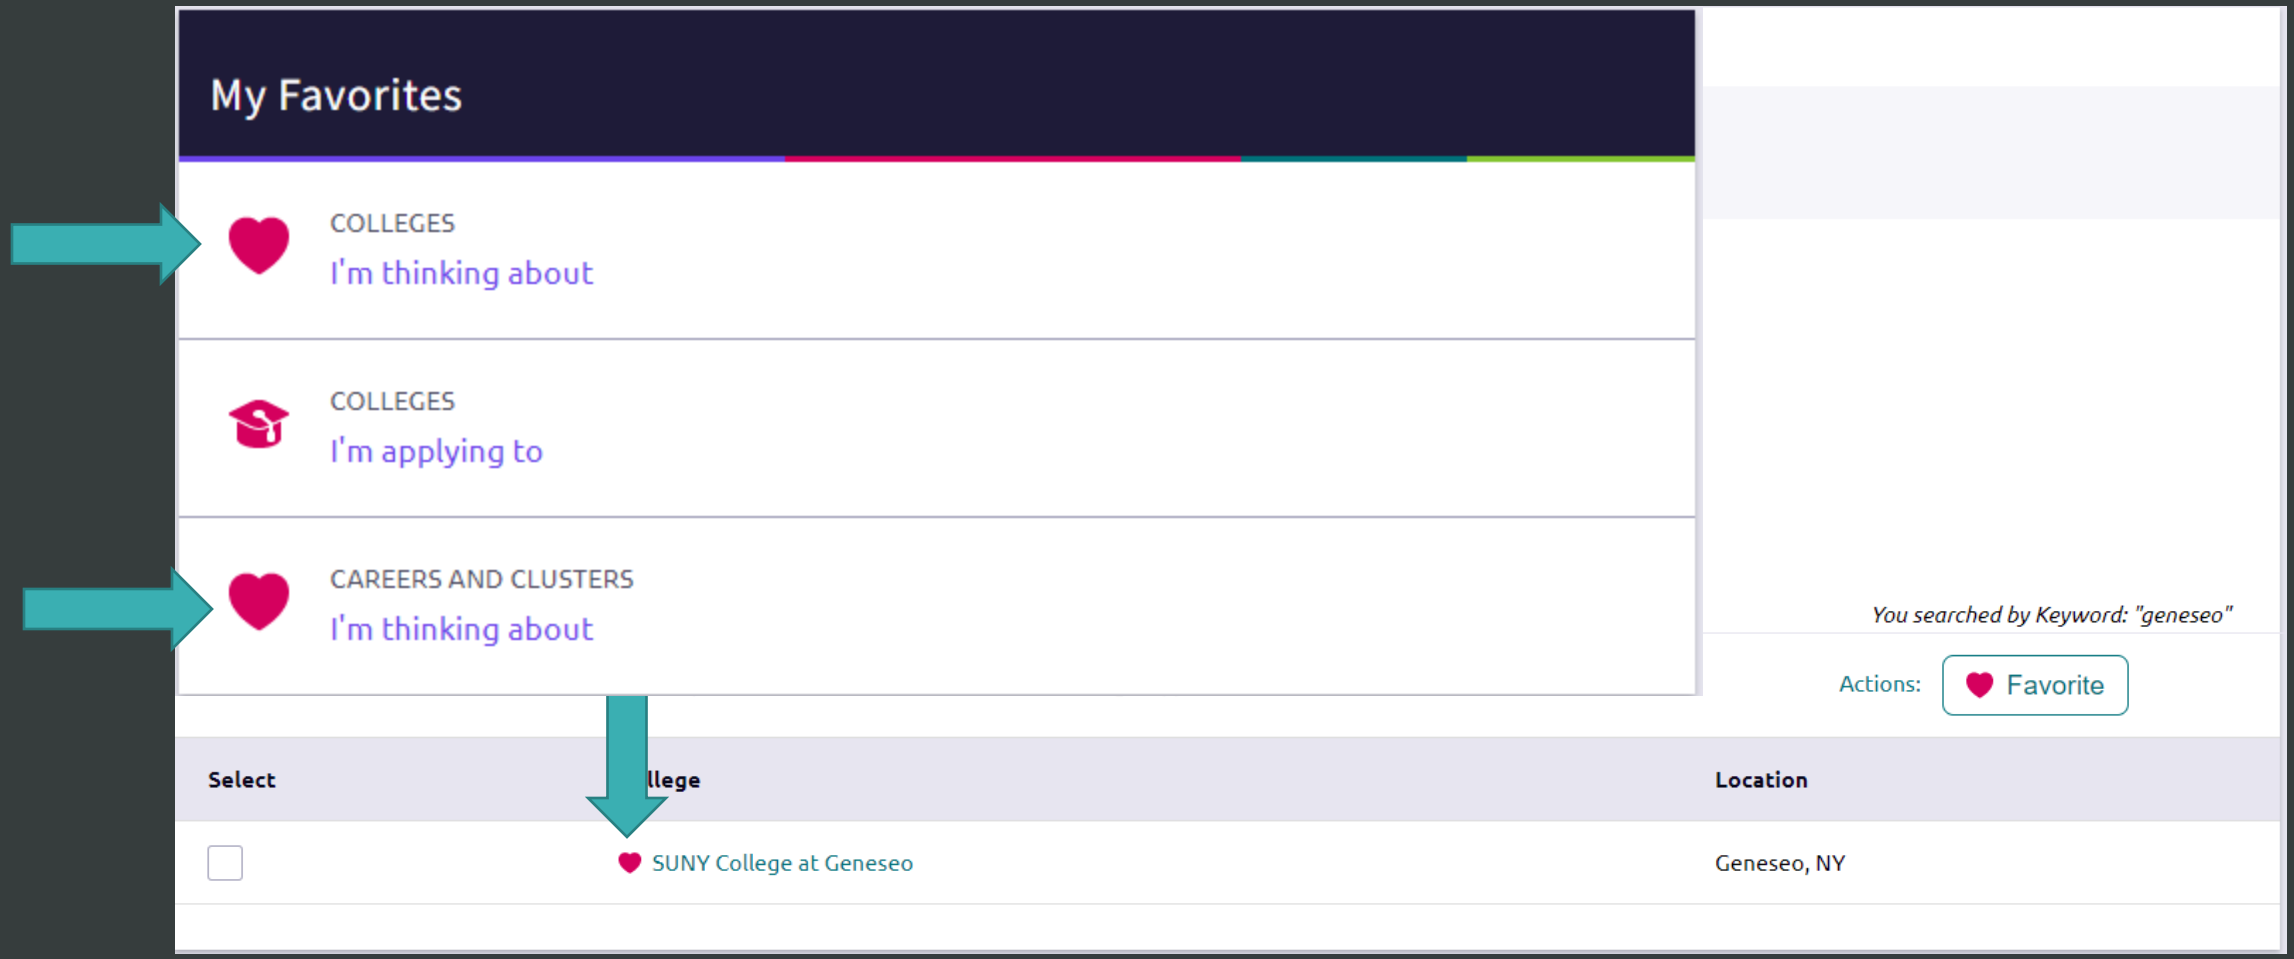

You'll learn your personality traits according to the Holland Code and how those help with career exploration and planning.

You'll inform your career planning process with career recommendations based on your personality.

Teachers and counselors will understand you and careers that might be a good fit for you.

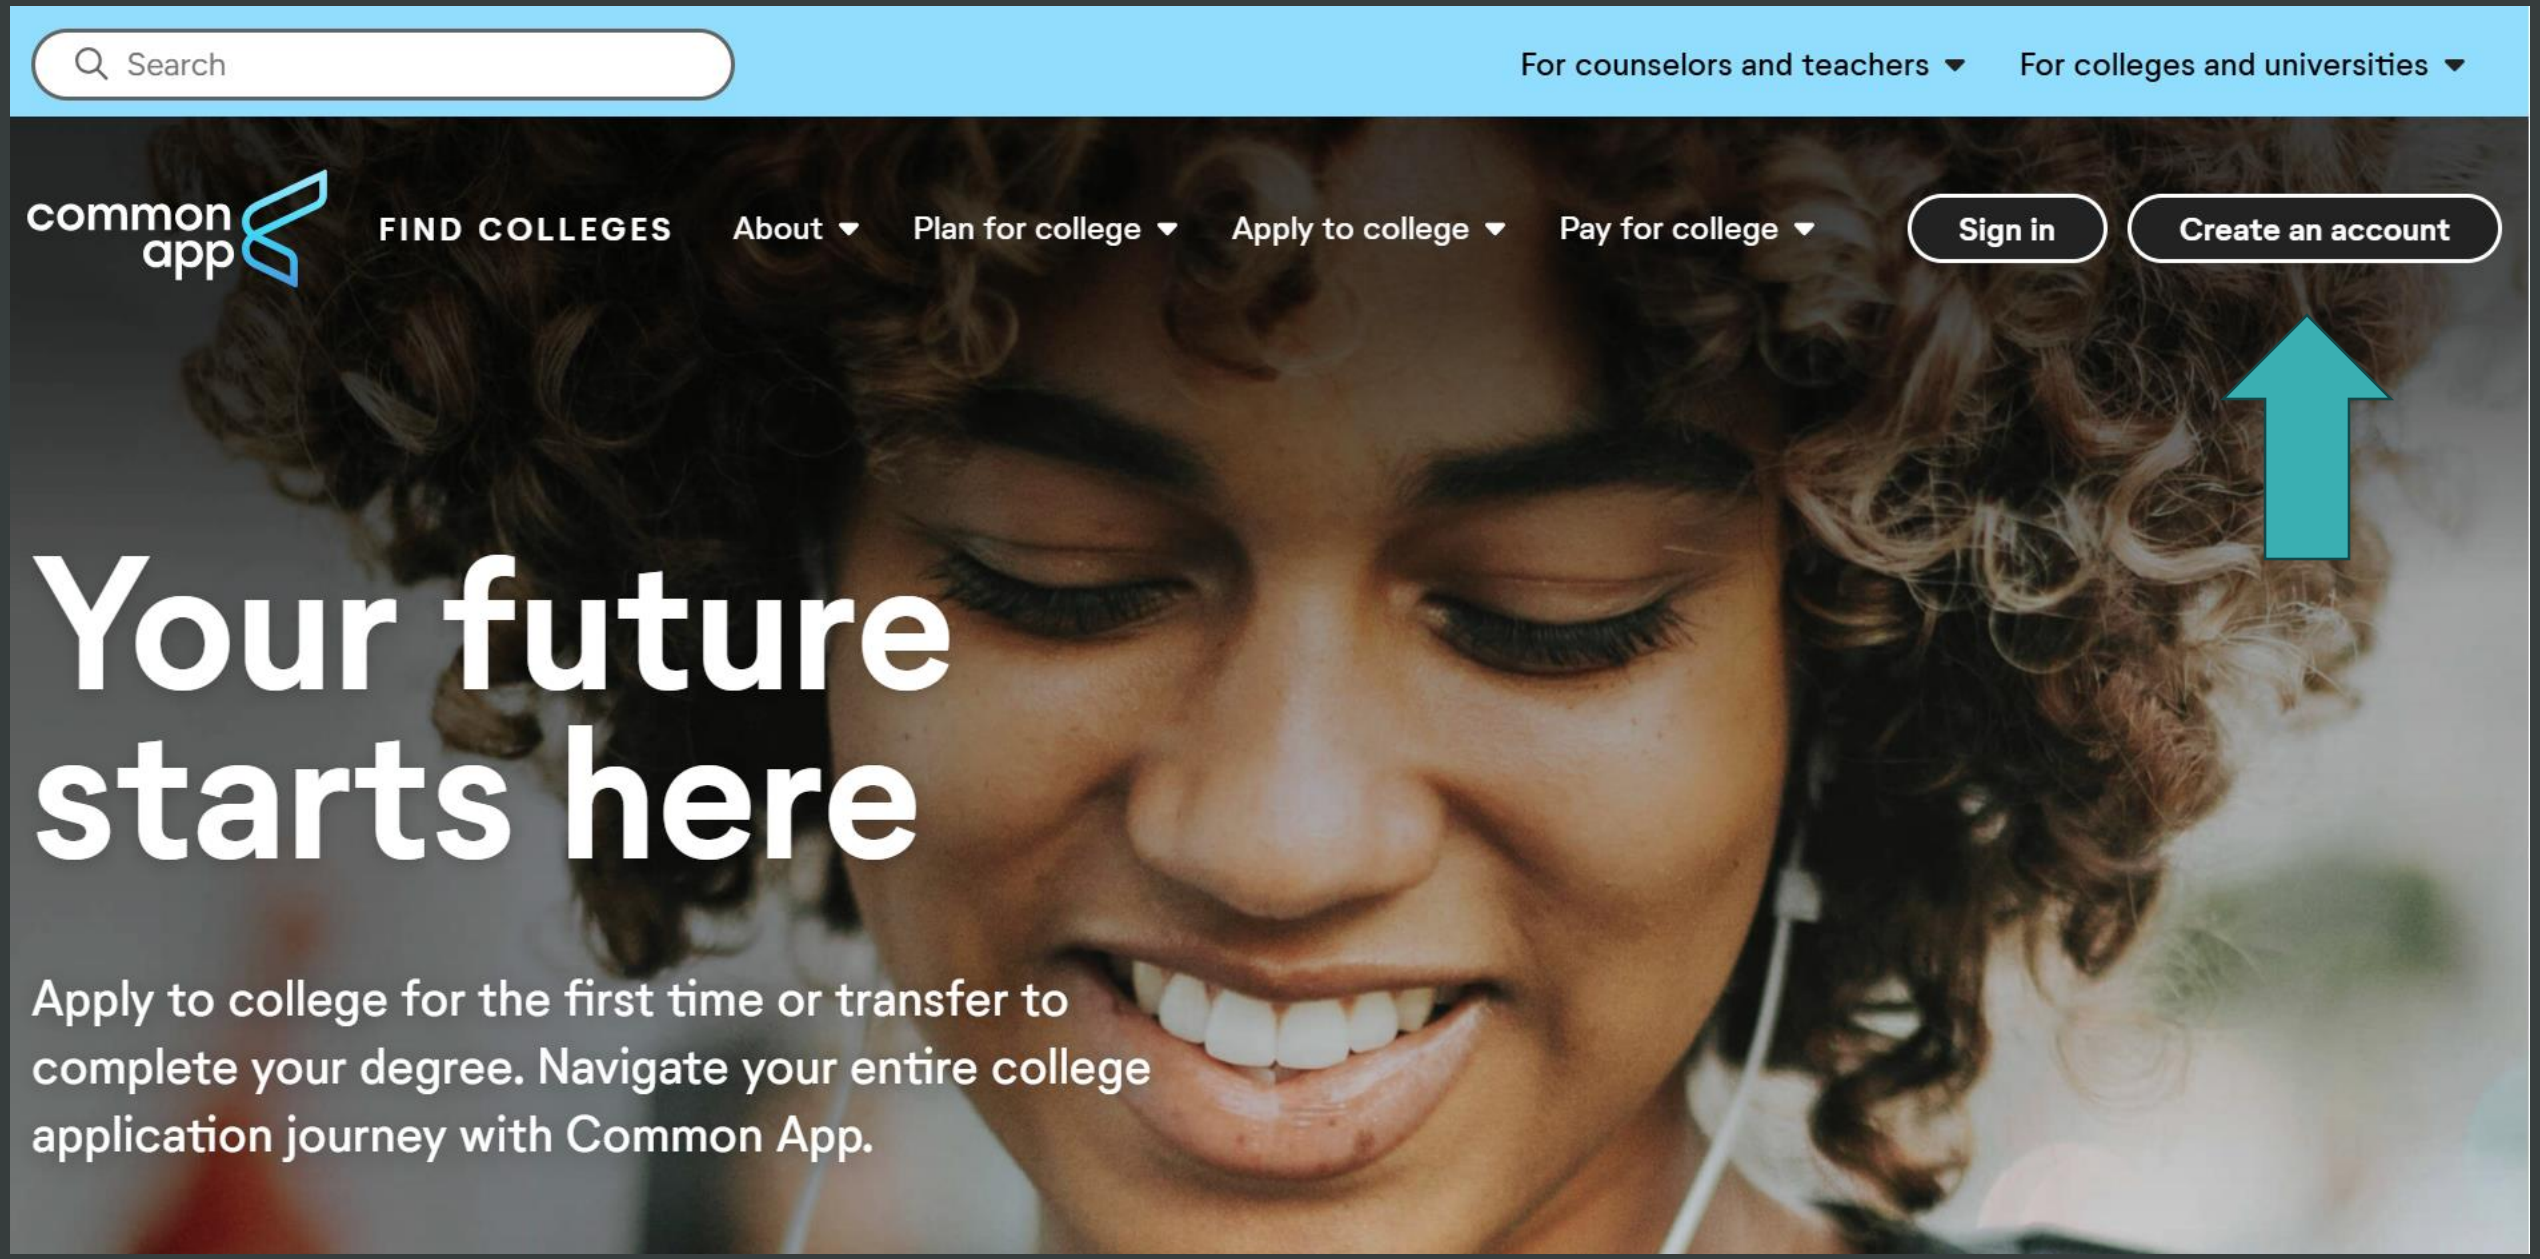

“Favorite” Function
